ICLA UPDATED HIGHER EDUCATION LICENCE
2016 2017

Covers copying and scanning from books, journals, magazines and newspapers.

The licence provides annual blanket permissions to copy and reuse content from print and digital publications.

- Make copies from digital and print books, magazines, journals, newspapers and websites
- Share copies with students and staff
- Store copies on your intranet
- Copy up to one article, chapter or 10% of the total, whichever is greater
- Copy publications from Ireland plus many international territories including the UK, USA, Australia, France, Germany, Spain and Italy.
- Make “accessible” copies for print disabled students
- Includes newspapers published in Ireland and the UK
- Use images from publications included in the ICLA licence

The purpose of the licence

The licence is intended to broaden and enrich students’ learning experience by enabling your institution to provide greater and easier access to copyright materials, through creating course packs or putting reading material on VLEs.
